

Women Like Me

a support group for women who are in or coming out of a marriage or long term heterosexual relationship

Are you currently or previously married, but think that you might be lesbian, bisexual or gay?

If so, join us for Women Like Me, an ongoing women's discussion and support group. In an open discussion format, we'll address topics unique to women who have previously identified as straight, such as:

Coming out to family, friends and at work
Parent/child issues | marital separation & divorce
Meeting other women | Sexual safety | Mental health

Our setting is safe and affirming, and there is no cost to participate. For more information, please contact:
